Moody Meadows GDPR Policy

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS POLICY

Obtaining & Processing of Personal Data

As part of Moody Meadows booking process, we will have lawful grounds or 'legitimate interest' for acquiring and processing of individual's personal data in order undertake the services requested. Examples of the data stored by us may include, but is not limited to:

- Full names
- Addresses
- Email Addresses
- Telephone

This information will be processed by Moody Meadows in order to carry out the services as agreed within the booking confirmation.

Marketing

Moody Meadows will only use personal data for marketing purposes with the consent of the individual. This consent will be in writing and will be made prior to the publishing of any marketing. As part of our standard terms and conditions of appointment, our customers will be requested to opt-in for us to the use of their project for marketing purposes.

Moody Meadows do not undertake any form of direct marketing and do not store personal data for the purpose of distributed media such as newsletters, mail shots etc.

Sharing Data

Moody Meadows will not share personal details with any third party.

Storing Data

Our customer data is stored in two different ways within our office management systems: Server based & Cloud Based.

Server Based Data

Some customer details are stored on our internal servers and are retained for a minimum of 6 years until our legal basis for their retention is no longer in place at which point, any personal data will be stripped from the files with only the intellectual property owned by Moody Meadows retained.

Cloud Based Data

We operate cloud-based storage for emailing operated by Gmail. All emails sent and received by the practice are stored in our secure public folders archive for a minimum of 6 years as are the email addresses of our contacts. Customer details are also stored securely by our third-party booking system provider.

Data Access Requests

Moody Meadows will act on data access requests without undue delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request. We recommend that any data access requests be made in writing, either by post or by email. All data access requests will be logged on our system to track when they were submitted and responded to and you are requested to attend our offices in person with proof of ID to receive a full copy of the data cache.

Right to be forgotten

Under Article 17 of the GDPR individuals have the right to have personal data erased. This is also known as the 'right to be forgotten'. The right is not absolute and only applies in certain circumstances (refer to <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/right-to-erasure/> for full list of circumstances).

Moody Meadows will endeavour wherever possible to act upon requests as regards Article 17 without undue delay and at the latest within one month of receipt. We will also endeavour to contact any third-party organisations who may have shared any personal data with whilst carrying out our services for that individual.

Data Breach Protocol

A personal data breach means a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data. This includes breaches that are the result of both accidental and deliberate causes.

In the event of a data breach which is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals; Moody Meadows (the controller) will endeavour to act upon and report the breach to those affected and other regulatory bodies such as the ICO within 72 hours of 'becoming aware' of the breach.

Where a data breach is IT based, our IT providers will be notified immediately and requested to investigate the source and extent of the breach to ascertain the security risks and how to prevent such breaches from reoccurring.

Prevention Procedures

We have worked closely with our IT providers to reduce the potential for a data breach via electronic hacking.
